Cartoon Analysis

/10

In paragraph form, analyze the cartoon above

- What is happening here?
- Who are the 2 people/groups being shown in the picture?
- What is the general historical event being portrayed (i.e. What does "the last spike" mean)?
- What is the deeper message the author wants you to get about the actions of this picture?
- Describe three ways that prejudice or discrimination was shown towards the people at the bottom of the picture in BC in the 1880s.
- Why did other workers not appreciate the person/group depicted at the bottom of the cartoon during the 1880s?
- What are your feelings about prejudice and discrimination today? Is it present? Have you witnessed it?
- Can there be a connection made between this event and any issues today that Canada may have?

Don't forget to proofread before you hand in: spelling, grammar, punctuation and sentence structure will all be taken into account for your grade